"The Busy Corner."

Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money.

A Remnant Day of Unsurpassed Bargains.

Full of vim, full of all the virtues that the "Best" goods possess—quality, exclusiveness, prettiness, reliability—the only thing wrong is the price. These items make up the menu for Friday's feast:

An offering of unusual magnitude—fine goods, goods of our higher-priced stocks. Women's fine imported high-cost four-thread Pure Lisle Hose in fancy patterns, in every style of two, three, and four-toe colorings—goods which are actually expensive, and make most appreciated presents. Real $1.00, $1.25, and $1.50 and even $1.50 values, and sold over our counters during the season at these prices. We shall give those who can appreciate a bargain, and a thorough one, grander than anything we have yet been able to offer you this season, at per pair. 50c

AGED MAN'S BAD FALL.

M. C. Huddleston, 72 Years Old, Tumbles from a Roof.

While at work on the roof of a building at the corner of Wisconsin Avenue and the Woodley Lane Road about 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning M. C. Huddleston lost his footing and fell to the ground.

He was injured about the head and back. He was attended by Dr. Chapelle, in whose buggy he was removed to his home, 1230 Thirtieth Street northeast.

Huddleston is seventy-two years of age, and his escape from instant death is considered miraculous.

POKER, RACES, THEN DIVORCE.

Mrs. Fackner Alleges Desertion Against Her Husband.

Her husband gave up a good position and engaged in playing poker and betting on the races. Mrs. E. S. Fackner states in a petition for divorce filed against Joseph M. Fackner.

The two were married in this city in July, 1897, and in November, 1899, Mrs. Fackner says, her husband finally and completely deserted and abandoned her. She is now compelled to earn her living by sewing. H. B. Moulton is named as counsel for the petitioner.

The Death Record.

The following deaths for twenty-four hours were reported at the Health Department up to last yesterday: Clement C. Beckett, 27 years; Catherine Eckardt, 76 years; Israel Rubenstein, 68 years; Louise Spraul, 67 years; William Prue, 62 years; Mary Frances Galey, 60 years; Willard Fales, 59 years; Cecelia Stepper, 58 years; Jennie Thornton, 53 years; Annie Funston, 35 years; Ida Smith Crawford, 23 years; Thomas Blake, 23 years; Charles Padler, 24 years; Tonia Tepper, 9 months; Abraham Smith, 2 days; and infant of Mailee Harris, 1 day.
